The objective of this notice is to:

1. Convey our sincere appreciation to all individuals who participated in the recently concluded interviews. The response was great.
2. Announce that management has reviewed the interview results and, based on the order of merit, directed the invitation of selected candidates to the next stage of the recruitment process.
3. Notify the candidates listed by identity codes in the subsequent tables that they are invited to proceed to the next stage.
4. Invite the shortlisted candidates to attend interviews as scheduled and detailed herein.
5. Provide important instructions for shortlisted candidates, namely:
  - i. All candidates must appear in person for the interviews.
  - ii. Candidates are required to present original copies of the following documents: relevant academic certificates and transcripts; valid professional registration and/or practicing certification (where applicable and required by law); National Identity Card; and a blue pen.

Interviews will be conducted at the NBRB offices, 2nd Floor, Rume House, Lumumba Avenue, Kampala.

Finally, applicants are reminded that all NBRB recruitment services are provided free of charge and no payments should be made in any form.

We look forward to engaging with the shortlisted candidates during the upcoming interview sessions.
